

Commercial & Property Law

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCIAL AND PROPERTY LAW EDITH OGOONNAYA NWOSU (MRS) LL.B., LL.M., BL. Ag. HEAD OF DEPARTMENT Mrs Edith Nwosu is a Senior Lecturer in the Faculty of Law, University of Nigeria, Enugu Campus. She graduated from the same Faculty in 1992 with a Second Class Honours (Upper Division). She made a First Class at the Nigerian Law School in 1993 Bar Examination and obtained four academic prizes for excellent performance including the first prize in Company Law and Commercial Practice and the first prize in Criminal Procedure. Edith obtained a Masters degree in Law (LL.M.) from the same Faculty. She teaches Company Law and the Law of Energy and Natural Resources at the undergraduate level. Also, she teaches Company Law at the postgraduate level. Mrs Edith Nwosu has attended several conferences including the United Nations Sessions of the Committee on the Status of Women from 2004 till date. Mrs Nwosu was the Assistant Editor, Nigerian Juridical Review from 1999 to 2004, and the current Secretary of the Editorial Committee of the same journal from 2004 till date. she is currently the Chairperson, International Federation of Women Lawyers (FIDA), Enugu State Branch, and an alumnus and member of the Faculty of the Haggai Institute, Hawaii, USA. PUBLICATIONS

- “Corporate Insolvency: Creditors Remedies Under the Companies and Allied Matters Act, 1990”, Essays on Contemporary Legal Issues ed. By Amadi G.O.S. et al (1996).
 - “The Law and Women in Nigeria”, CRP Report and Freidrich Naumann – Stiftung (1995).
 - “A Review of Shareholders’ Appraisal Right in a Merger Activity”, Nigerian Juridical Review, Vol. 6 1994 – 1997.
 - “The Impact of Mergers and Acquisitions on Contracts of Employment”, Abia State University Law Journal, Vol. 2, June 1997.
 - “Petroleum Legislation and Enforcement of Environmental Laws and Standards in Nigeria”, Nigerian Juridical Review, Vol. 7 1998 – 1999.
 - “Disciplinary Powers of Domestic Tribunals: Medical and Dental Practitioners Disciplinary Tribunal v. Okonkwo”, Nigerian Juridical Review, Vol. 8 2000.
 - “Understanding the Nigerian Investment Promotion Commission Act”, JURISCOPE (2008) p. 79.
- Edith Ogonnaya Nwosu is presently the Ag. Head, Department of Commercial and Property Law PATRICIA NWAJULU OFILI (MRS) LL.B., B.L., FCIS. Patricia Nwajulu Ofili obtained her Bachelor of Laws Degree from University of Nigeria in 1975 in Second Class Honours (Upper Division) and was called to the Bar in 1976. thereafter, she went into the industry and had real stint. Patricia Nwajulu Ofili was the pioneer Company Secretary and Legal Adviser of Orient Bank of Nigeria Plc., where she rose to the ranks of Deputy General Manager and Acting Managing Director respectively. Before joining Orient Bank Plc, she was between 1978 – 1979, the Manager (Legal) of a multinational company, Michelin Technical and Supply Co Nigeria Ltd. She also worked briefly with Life and Fire Insurance Co. Ltd, Lagos. Patricia Nwajulu Ofili joined the academia in 2005. she is interested in Company Law, particularly Mergers and Acquisitions. She is also a Fellow of the Institute of Chartered Secretaries and Administrators (London), having obtained the qualifying certificate of the Institute after studying at the Newcastle-Upon-Tyne Polytechnic, England. Clara Chinasa Obi-Ochiabutor B.Sc (Pol. Sc.); LL.B., LL.M. (Nig.) Clara Obi-Ochiabutor first obtained a Bachelors degree in Political Science from the University of Benin, Benin City, Edo State, before proceeding to the University of Nigeria, where she obtained her Bachelor and Masters degrees in Law. She teaches Legal Methods, Industrial Law and Law of Contract at the undergraduate level. Her special areas of research include Human Rights Law, Environmental Law and Comparative International Criminal Law. NKEMDILIM IWEBUNOR ITANYI (MRS) Nkemdilim Iwebunor Itanyi obtained a Bachelor of Laws Degree (LL.B.) from Obafemi Awolowo University, (OAU) Ile – Ife in 1997. She attended the Nigerian Law School, Bwari, Abuja, in 1998/99 and was called to the Nigerian Bar in 1999. She obtained a Master of Laws degree (LL.M.) Degree in Commercial and Corporate Law from University College London, University of London, in November 2000. Mrs Itanyi teaches Law of Industrial and Intellectual Property, Commercial Law and Company Law at the undergraduate level. Her special areas of research include International Business Transactions, Intellectual Property Law and Company Law. Mrs Itanyi is married with children. IKECHUKWU CHIMEIkechukwu Chime obtained his Bachelor of Law degree (LL.B.) from the Faculty of Law, University of Nigeria. He worked as a legal officer at the Nigerian National Petroleum Corporation, Lagos. He obtained a Master of Laws degree (LL.M.) in Petroleum Law and Policy, with a minor in International Business Transactions Law, from the Centre for Energy, Petroleum and Mineral Law and Policy, University of Dundee in 2001. He was the Editor in Chief of the 2000 Edition of the CEPMLP Annual Review, published by the Centre for Energy, Petroleum and Mineral Law and Policy (CEPMLP), University of Dundee, Scotland. Ikechukwu was a Visiting Scholar and Research Assistant at the School of Resource and Environmental Management, Simon Fraser University, Burnaby, British Columbia, Canada, where he carried out comparative studies of the institutional arrangements for sustainable natural resource management in North America, Bay of Bengal and Europe. He worked as an Environmental and Planning Law Analyst at the Social Change Institute, Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada. Ike joined the Faculty of Law, University of Nigeria in 2006 as a Lecturer II. His areas of research interest are Electricity Law, Project Finance and Investment Law and Mining Law. He teaches Equity & Trust, Law of Energy and Natural Resources and Business Law at the undergraduate level.