

FULL DETAILS OF ANUNSA WEEK EVENTS

ANUNSA WEEK is a one-week event being organized by the All-Nigeria United Nations Students and Youth Association (ANUNSA), UNN Chapter. The week is going to be a life changing experience for students of the University and some secondary schools in Nsukka.

THEME: Rethinking the World – A Path to Sustainable Development

DATE: Monday, 4th June – Friday, 8th June 2018

ACTIVITIES:

Monday (4 th June)	-	Campus Tour/Awareness
Tuesday (5 th June)	-	Secondary School Tour
Wednesday (6 th June)	-	Secondary School Tour
Thursday (7 th June)	-	Campus ICT Training
Friday (8 th June)	-	Main Event/Competitions

The campus tour/awareness would be an avenue for the ANUNSA members to educate UNN students on the ideals of the United Nations and the UN SDGs.

Tuesday and Wednesday would see the effort of ANUNSA members and other resource persons in educating and training secondary school students on "Self-awareness, Self-image, Goal-setting, Leadership and ethics."

Thursday would open a platform for free ICT training for quality education. The training is for UNN students. Our resource persons shall be training the students on how to use ICT to enhance their academic pursuits and digital and online marketing for those that are interested in entrepreneurship.

Friday would be the main event. Our Guest Speaker, Fela Durotoye will be speaking on the theme of the week: "Rethinking the world – A path to sustainable Development." The main event would also cover a wholesome package of the SDGs competition. UNN students will be presenting on "The Nigeria of my dream". There would also be a presentation on Cultural Heritage which is aimed at promoting our culture.

Finally, UNN students, the university dignitaries and distinguished guests would as well grace the event which promises to be great.

Yours in Global Peace,
